MORE DEMOCRATIC CARELESSNESS AT FRANKFORT.

Frankfort—The enacting clause which the constitution provides shall be the style of all bills passed by the Legislature, was left off of the two and one-half cent railroad fare bill passed by the recent Legislature. The enacting clause to all measures reads: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky." The error was discovered by Assistant Attorney General Morris, who is compiling the bills for publication. It is believed that the bill will be invalidated by reason of the enacting clause being left off.

An agreed suit was filed in the Franklin Circuit Court at Frankfort to test the State Text Book Commission law.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

GLADYS HULETTE IN "FALLING IN LOVE WITH INEZ" Edison Comedy.

Musical Feature Today— "RAGTIME ARABIAN NIGHTS," Stern's Latest Success

the gallows. At Georgetown, Ky., a young man refused to speak to his mother for over a year, even while she was sacrificing her life for his education. In a drunken fit he threw a chair, which broke one of her limbs; at the court trial the mother refused to testify, declaring that she loved her boy. Even after such brutal treatment she could not forsake him. Have you treated Jesus that bad, and worst, oftentimes? Indeed we have, and yet He has never forsaken us, nor punished us for our sins just deserts. What marvelous love, what infinite love must this be.

"So I will comfort you." God, like our earthly mother, sympathizes with us. How near and real this brings God to us. How often we have said, "I have an Almighty Savior in heaven but since we learn that He sympathizes with us, just as our temporal mother does, we realize that we can have His very near, even in our heart. Christ like bread, must be with us to sustain us, the very best knowledge of bread will not sustain us. As the school boy needs his mother's sympathy to help him bear imagined, or real injustices of school life, and as none can comfort, but mother, so we in the great 'School of Life' need and can enjoy this Motherhood of God. Well might we repeat:

"Think not thou canst sigh a sigh and thy Maker is not nigh— Think not thou canst shed a tear, and thy Maker is not near; Oh He gives to us His joy, that our grief He may destroy— And until our grief has fled and gone Christ does sit by us and moan."

God like mother will never leave us in our sorest distress and need. There is no greater picture of God's watchfulness, than we find in a mother as she watches her sick babe. The hiring may sleep, but mother never naps except it be with one eye open. A mother, after weeks of watching over her dangerously sick babe, can wearily slumber amid the terrible storm, but let that baby breathe a little hard or make the slightest move that mother is wide awake, in a moment. How like the motherhood of God—Christ could sleep though the ship rocked, the waves lashed and the winds roared. He could sleep through it all; but just so soon as the disciples needed Him, He came to them at once.

How like a mother is God in His forgiveness. The prodigal boy can waste his ALL and yet return to his mother with the "Upper Ten" of society; but let the Prodigal Daughter commit but one infraction of chastity, and though she might crawl on bleeding knees, through blinding tears of repentance, to the door of respectability, she will find it closed and the iron heel of public censure soon drives her to the brothel or death. But thank God, this mother love has provided mercy and forgiveness for even the Prodigal Daughter. There is hope for the vilest of sinners. Are you sinful? "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin. Are you broken hearted? You may come and lay your head upon His breast, and He will give you joy and comfort. Are you lonely? Here is a rare chance to creep into the mother arms of God and find sweet communion. Do you fear death? Fear not, for God has a motherly way of kissing His children to sleep; He bringeth the peace and life out of turmoil and death and when you are being rocked into that silent slumber, you can say with the angels, "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you!"

Eggs from China arrived yesterday. They were the first consignments ever received in Cincinnati. The lot consisted of about a half dozen cases. They sold at 15¢ cents a dozen, or at about the same price level as the American eggs. Cincinnati commission merchants do not speak very highly about the foreign eggs already received.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Dr. J. C. Peck's Black-Draught, and gave taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Dr. J. C. Peck's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.
